2024 Work Budget Session

At 6:30p.m. the mayor started with the Fire department's budget with no changes then second was the Water department with no changes, but Steve Williamson did voice with concern the city needs to look into how low the amount of the Workers Comp was for all the budgets. Fran said she would look into. Third the Street was looked at with no changes. Fourth was the Police Department with no changes but there was a discussion of possible looking into pay raises for next year to get all police offices at a better rate in comparison to other cities. Fifth was the Park department with no changes. And last was the General with the changes of the City Clerks salary to go up from $18,000.00 to $20,000.00. No motion was made with all the changes, and this will be brought to the next council meeting on December 19th at 6:30p.m. for the 2024 Budget to be passed.

A motion was made by John Heflin to adjourn the meeting. A second by Jessie Young.
